

No Sluggard Hands

Scripture: Proverbs 6:6-11

VERSE 1

Wake up, little hands
Morning work is good
Keep your little lamp bright
Do what you should

Proverbs says, be wise
Don't love sleepy ways
Diligence is treasure
Shining through your days

VERSE 2

Peter heard and went
Matthew left the booth
When Jesus called their names
They followed in the truth

CHORUS

No sluggard hands
No sluggard hands
We work with joy
We work with joy
No sluggard hands
No sluggard hands
Jesus leads us on

VERSE 3

If you will not work
You should not eat
That's the way of peace
That's the way to meet

Honor Mom and Dad
Listen, kind and true
Thank the ones the Lord
Has placed to care for you

No Sluggard Hands (cont'd)

Pray for those who give
Homes and jobs and bread
God can use their hands
To feed the ones He's led

CHORUS (repeat)

BRIDGE

Farmer in the field
Hard work bears good fruit
Strengthen weak knees now
Stand up straight and strong
Let what is lame be healed
And keep us moving on

CHORUS (repeat)

Bible verse · Little lesson

No Sluggard Hands

"And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men."

— Colossians 3:23 (KJV)

LITTLE LESSON FOR LITTLE HEARTS

Hard work isn't a punishment — it's a way to serve Jesus. When you tidy a toy or help a brother, you're working for the King of kings. We don't earn God's love by working; we work because He has already loved us in Christ, and our cheerful hands are a thank-you back to Him.
